

World Cafe Live Fifth Anniversary

World Cafe Live celebrates its fifth anniversary today with free music throughout the day and night. But here's the tricky part: The merrymaking starts at 10 a.m. in Wilmington at a groundbreaking ceremony at the Queen Theater, which, in a testament to the success of the original in West Philadelphia, will become the next World Cafe Live.

The Delaware soiree will feature WXPN mainstay Jonatha Brooke, New Orleans funkateer Trombone Shorty, and Ben LeRoy. Then, back up I-95 two hours later, Langhorne Slim and Will Hoge team up for an XPN Free at Noon show. After that, there's more freeness with many local luminaries, including Carsie Blanton, Bob Beach, and Mutlu. Philadelphia Latin dance ensemble Alô Brasil performs at 6. And Trombone Shorty, who's a dynamo on stage, closes out the evening with his band Orleans Avenue.

Trombone Shorty closes the World Cafe celebration day.

- Dan DeLuca

World Cafe Live Fifth Anniversary Celebration with Trombone Shorty and Orleans Avenue, Alô Brasil, David Falcone, Christine Havrila, Bob Beach, Matt Santry, Lizanne Knott, Carsie Blanton, Kate Miller-Heidke, American Babies, Mutlu, Cheap Seats, The Real Feel, Boy Wonder, Agent Moosehead, John Monahan, and Andy of the Future at World Cafe Live, 3125 Walnut St., at 1 p.m. today. Free. Phone: 215-222-1400, www.worldcafelive.com